What's up with me.

This is the season! It will be defined by a burst of colour as Jessica unleashes her latest creative expressions in a series of exhibits around the city. As usual, Jessica Gorlicky's artistic creations are a reflection of her philosophy - loving life and living it to the fullest. There are great new ways to experience her artwork this season in spaces that are so complimentary for the "Jessgo" style. The intensity and subjects of her work are really coming to life, it's really expressive and emotional....

Several spots around the city will exhibit the latest set of Jessgo originals, including Slacks at 562 and Church Ave., MB & Co., System 4 Gallery, and Eat Lunch. "For me it's really easy to connect with Jessica's work, because it always evokes such a strong reaction in me," said Justine Silver, a collector of Jessica's work. "We're always looking forward to seeing what Jess has created after a few weeks go by."

New Pieces.

In her latest line of paintings, Jessica experiments with different palettes as she tries to interpret the female spirit in their facial expressions. Each exhibit that will be showcasing her art in the coming months was chosen because of the way they complement her work with their airy, mood-lit rooms and commitment to a strong artistic spirit.

The Jewelry

Toronto fashion week '06

Throughout her career as a professional artist, Jessica has realized her work has created a buzz among art professionals and art aficionados. That's why she decided to take her creativity a step further by creating a line of jewelry.

Each silver-plated piece is decorated with semi-precious Swarovski crystals plus a touch of that unmistakable JessGo flare. Flowers, material, different shapes and colours make each piece one-of-a-kind. Jessica's jewelry made a splash in the New York fashion scene this summer and now the artist is ready to introduce her latest creations to the Toronto market. "I love using crystal colours to make a piece come alive," she said. "The same rules that I have taken from my paintings I have worked into my jewelry and it's just a bonus that people are into them and want to wear them too."
